

We Love ♡ Arashiyama

2018. 11. 1 (Thu) - 2019. 1. 27 (Sun)

Saga Arashiyama Museum of Arts & Culture (SAMAC) is pleased to present a special exhibition called “We Love Arashiyama” featuring the paintings associated with Arashiyama area that has been inspiring many artists.

In the 8th century, Saga Arashiyama area was regarded as the best place to visit in autumn and became popular among emperors and court nobles who made many Waka poems to admire its beauty. In the middle of the 18th century, cherry blossoms started to be planted in Mr. Arashi and it became a must-see spot in spring as well. It started to period, many artists who belonged to the Kyoto Circle of Painters started to live in Saga Arashiyama and made the most of its beauty of the nature.

In this exhibition, we are honored to introduce Japanese paintings from the 18th to the 19th century, such as “Autumn landscape of Takao and Spring Landscape of Arashiyama” by Yano Yacho (1782-1828), which is shown first to the public, “Raftsmen” by Yosa Buson (1716 - 1784), a famous Haiku poet, and “Fierce Tiger” by Takeuchi Seiho (1864 - 1942), who is one of the greatest artists of the Kyoto Circle of Painters.

We hope you enjoy watching Arashiyama through the eyes of these artists and find additional charms of the area.
